Logo Use Guidelines

Standard arrangement

The LVRC logo/corporate mark is made up of two elements; the logotype and the graphic symbol. Both these two elements rely on each other to create the corporate mark and should never be used separately.

Alternative colour versions

These alternative versions of the corporate mark are to be used when the standard arrangement cannot be used. For example: a single colour or black and white print job, or when the logo is used on a coloured background.

- Reversed corporate mark for use on coloured backgrounds or images.
- Corporate mark for use on coloured backgrounds or images when the text 'Regional Council' is placed on a light-coloured background.
- Black and white version to be used on black and white print production.
- Reversed corporate mark version on a black background. Note: the black background is NOT part of the corporate logo.
