

How to have your say

INFORMATION SHEET

The Draft Lockyer Valley Planning Scheme has been developed by Lockyer Valley Regional Council in accordance with the Planning Act 2016.

During the consultation period, any person may make a submission on any element or matter of the Draft Planning Scheme.

For your submission to be considered by Council, it must be a 'properly made submission,' which is defined in Schedule 2 of the Planning Act 2016 as follows:

- ✓ Full Name/s (of all submitters)
- ✓ Address (where you currently reside or business address)
- ✓ Contact Details (phone number and/or email address)
- ✓ Supporting Information about your submission with details and facts (correct addresses, related images, related reports etc.)
- ✓ If making a hard copy submission, it must be signed and received by Council before 4:30pm on Friday, 6 October 2023.
- ✓ If making an electronic submission it must be submitted before midnight on Friday, 6 October 2023.

Once a submission is made, Council will publish a report on the submissions made and how each of the submissions has been addressed. The report will be published on Council's website.
