Arts and Culture Strategy

Mission

Connect our creative sector to education, resources, and opportunities, to grow the visibility of arts and cultural projects and programs as an integral part of our community.

Strategic Priorities

- SP1 Empower and facilitate the creative sector to grow and develop their capacity and capability to be an integral part of our community.
- SP2 Connect and encourage our community and visitors to participate in programs and projects that increase opportunities for development of arts and cultural initiatives.
- SP3 Understand the importance of acknowledging, involving and engaging First Nations people and Culture.
- SP4 Enhance the profile and acknowledge the importance of the Lockyer Valley Art Gallery in promoting arts and cultural experiences in the community.

Performance Measures

- Support the creation of a community led Arts and Cultural Working Group.
- Increase engagement and involvement of First Nations people by Council and Artists in programs and initiatives.
- Increase opportunities for community and visitor participation in projects and programs.
- Increase the awareness of the available arts and cultural product as a means to increase visitation to the region.
- Increase the visibility of funding opportunities available to artists across the region (e.g. RADF, RAF).
- Increase visitation to the Art Gallery by providing unique opportunities and experiences.
